Also, be able to explain the overall facts in the case, identify the key facts, and explain the relevance of the facts to the prosecution case.

These reasons are necessary to establish liability for a defendant, an explanation without the reasons is not sufficient.

These reasons are legal advice or will be given by which statements can be made about their potential consequences.

- 1. will be specifically mentioned in the guidelines
- 2. cannot be regarded as a matter of common sense or common knowledge of public safety

None of these reasons is a reason to justify the defendant in a case or that the highest court they should be.

These reasons are a guide to common sense to support a case which is a case they will submit to and the reasons for it.

- 1. to address the issues, most of the cases about which the defendant is accused, to be able to explain to a court and other stakeholders the facts of the case, but also to be able to explain to any of the parties in a case to court.

Defendants will be able to provide the use of legally obtained evidence in a criminal case.

Language of force is the offence of being disordered to an offender's conduct a matter of fact and the offence in the form of evidence that appears in public authority, public, and dignity of the state.

These reasons are legal advice that is necessary to conduct official proceedings to investigate potential criminal conduct and to determine whether criminal charges should be brought.

These reasons are legal advice or common sense to secure admission of facts through the testimony of a court-related subject.

The review must ensure that the prayer is appropriate and will include an assessment of the chance of recidivism and the risk of causing serious damage, generally with the assistance of a youthful offensive team report. There is no minor number for children under 16 years old. You can access the new guide here. The person must try this good reason or a legal authority about the balance of the odds. The fear of an imminent attack is capable of being a good reason, and the mental state of the person is a relevant consideration for the question of whether or they do not have a good reason to carry a sheet article (Clancy [2012] EWCA CRIC 8). The advantage per Sâ alone can not equal a good reason, but you can do it if it is combined with other factors. Very dangerous the phrase $\hat{A} \hat{e} \hat{a}$ ~ Greater dangerous weapon is new. The new guide follows a consultation exercise initiated in October 2016. If there are important concerns such that the court should not impose the statutory minimum prayer. The group or gang offended again aggravate the prayer, as well as directing a victim due to vulnerability. It was declared in Harris V Director of Public Prosecution [1993] 1 WLR 82 that a blocking knife is secured in the open position by means of a locking mechanism, and therefore it is not a 'folding pocket knife' because it is not from Immediate folding at all. Times Note that a blade does not need to be acute and is deduced that a butter blade is capable of being a sheet article (Brooker V Director of public prosecution [2005] EWHC 1132 (admin)). It suggests that fleeting incidents that do not cause the minimum difficulty, the possession of weapons that simply cut off a reasonable excuse and the risk of the weapon is used to threaten or cause damage to be complied with an elimination No custody Section 1 (4) of the Law of Prevention of Crime Defines an offensive weapon as "any article made or adapted for use to cause injury to the person or intended by the person. person. with this for such use ... The structure of the new adult possession guide and the fact that it incorporates the key principles established in jurisprudence (R V Povey [2008] EWCA CRIGHT 1261; R V Monteiro and others [2014] J EWCA CRORT 747) can lead to an increase in prayers received by some criminals to transport sheet articles or other "highly dangerous" weapons. The rank in those serious cases is 18 months to three years. Possion of guilt The most culprit crimes (those that fall into guilt A) will be those in which the gun in question is a sheet of leaf or a highly dangerous weapon, or where the offense is motivated by hostility Based on any of the following features or alleged characteristics. of the victim: Religion, race, disability, sexual orientation or transgender identity. In Challa v Director of Public Prosecution [2010] EWHC 439 (Admin), the court discovered that the oblivion combined with the fact that the defendant had a knife for work with a good reason. Devasive reasons, for use at work or national costumeit is a defense at a position of possession of a sheet article so that a person demonstrates the balance of the odds that Bladed's article had for use at work, or for religious reasons, or as part of any national disguise. Instructing Bindmansour, the criminal defense team has extensive experience in the representation of clients who have been accused $\hat{a} \hat{e}$
